Consumers' Choice Awards

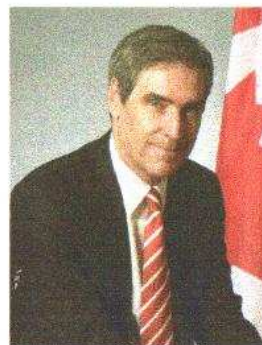

It is a pleasure for me to send greetings to everyone attending this year's Consumers' Choice Awards and I would like to thank the organisers from the Consumers' Choice Institute (Canada) for all their hard work in putting together such a wonderful event.

I would like to congratulate all the people behind the products and services that have been judged by consumers to merit the Gold medal standard. Right across the country men and women are working hard to serve their customers, help their companies to grow and provide for their families. Knowing that what you have been part of creating, producing, promoting and servicing has earned the approval of businesses and the consumer public is incredibly satisfying, on both a professional and personal level.

The Consumers' Choice Awards encourage innovation and excellence in this country and are an important method to reward those who have achieved the highest level of consumer approval. Receiving this award is both a great honour and a call to continuous improvement on the part of those who have won and those who came close.

Please accept my best wishes for a wonderful evening.
